Examiner Santos:

Thank you VERY much for the courtesy call. This Amendment and Response was filed March 11, 2004, with proper extension of time (I will verify that the fee was deducted, though you may be able to, as well), and thus the case SHOULD NOT be abandoned. This is the third or fourth such amendment that has been lost by the USPTO in the last few months by either the IDS processing branch or another office handling Group 2100 files! This is extremely disturbing, as other Examiners are not so courteous and will often abandon these cases despite even noticing that the extension fees have been paid (In these cases, the extensions of time and IDS fee documents have all been received and processed, with only the extremely time-consuming Amendments being lost).

Please consider this a certification that the attached amendment was filed as indicated on the copy of the US Post Office receipt included herein, or let me know what further petitioning would be necessary for entry of this Response. One Art Unit was actually able to locate the lost Amendment, as well.

Sincerely,

 Andrew Schwaab, Reg. No. 38,611
